

Envisioning a Collaborative Response Model: Supporting ALL Students

Presented By: Marilyn Schmitke

Date(s):

Wednesday, October 16, 2019
9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Session Location:

Central Alberta Regional Consortium
8 Page Avenue, Red Deer, AB

Registration Fee:

$75.00

Audience: Administrators, teachers, district leaders, EA's, instructional leaders

Grade Level: K-12

About the Session:

It is virtually impossible for a teacher to know how to successfully provide instruction and support for all students in diverse, inclusive contemporary classrooms. Come learn about a Collaborative Response Model, a school framework that values collaborative, action focused responses, data-informed discussions, and timely intervention to ensure all students can experience success. Come learn how hundreds of school leadership teams are establishing inclusive structures to ensure support for every student, while enhancing professional expertise and collective efficacy. Numerous Alberta school and district examples, as well as access to a myriad of resources will be provided.

About the Presenter(s):

Marilyn Schmitke

Marilyn Schmitke is a strong proponent of Collaborative Response in the Edmonton Public Schools for nearly a decade. Marilyn has extensive experience in implementing and growing Collaborative Response practices in a number of schools. She provides support to leaders in the development of their skills in strategic planning, instructional leadership, designing collaborative practices and effectively navigating change and growth for staff teams.

- Mentoring leaders through the implementation of Collaborative Response in several schools at the elementary and junior high levels.
- Designing plans and structures to create momentum and ensure sustainability for school success.
- Creating leadership communities of practice focused on implementing best practices for school-wide improvement.