

Development of Indigenous Kits in French

Presented By: Jane Atkins

Date(s):

Monday, February 10, 2020
9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Session Location:

Central Alberta Regional Consortium
8 Page Avenue, Red Deer, AB

Registration Fee:

Free

Audience: Teachers

Grade Level: K-12

About the Session:

French teachers from each district/division will work collaboratively to aid in the creation of Indigenous Kits in the French language (similar to the ones developed in English). Development of concept based lessons to broaden the scope of the kits will also be worked on as time permits.

Once translation and lesson development have been completed, the kits will be assembled for use on a mutually agreed upon future date.

About the Presenter(s):

Jane Atkins

Jane Atkins is a life long learner whose interests lie in helping teachers and students in their respective success journeys. She has a Special Education background and has taught Grades 2 – 8 in numerous subject areas as well as in both official languages. Through her years working in Slave Lake, she gained an appreciation of Indigenous cultures and learning styles and has continued to develop her understanding throughout her 40+ years in the education system as a teacher, presenter and curriculum coordinator. She looks forward to being able to work with districts and their teachers as we strive to gain a better understanding of our Indigenous peoples through “Education For Reconciliation”.
